

COORDINATE FIELD PROXIMATE FUNCTION

by

Philip Mazeikas

“Coordinate Field Proximate Function” is my hypothesis towards a cure for eczema:

Postulate upon recourse of indivisible quotient of intermittent function of nucleic differential of stasis upon variant enzyme proximate axis of integral limit and inert variable quotient upon inverse lymph designated inertia defines intermittent stasis.