

DERIVATIVE INFLUX NITROUS ION

by

Philip Mazeikas

“Derivative Influx Nitrous Ion” is my hypothesis towards an antidote to methamphetamine:

Indeterminant prelocation of intermediary potassium sulfate differential upon magnesium chloride interval upon dislocated nitric inertia defines incongruent pressure.