

INDEFINITE INERT MEASURE

by

Philip Mazeikas

“Indefinite Inert Measure” is my hypothesis towards a cure for paralysis:

Postulate upon return of integral dimension of pressure upon derivative of threshold of designated cerebral designated fission determines interval of cellular dimension upon frequency of dislocated entropy.