

INDETERMINANT VESTIGE REPOSE

by

Philip Mazeikas

“Indeterminant Vestige Repose” is my hypothesis towards recovery from muscular atrophy:

Designated measure upon inverse quotient of nucleic inert dimension of congruent mitochondria function defines instantaneous vestige of proximate cellular recourse.