

INTELLIGENCE AS CHARACTER

by

Philip Mazeikas

There once was a man who wanted to understand.

He beheld the stars and the Earth and sought to learn.

As he thought about the stars and the Earth he felt immense care for them.

As he elated in his concern for the stars and the Earth, they entered his heart.

With the stars and the Earth in his heart, he had the strength to look at them with clarity.

It was his care that gave him the strength to learn.
